

Benefits:

When you engage a Realtor as your standard agent, you have a professional advocate working on your behalf. Your Realtor can offer you the benefit of solid business experience and training. Realtors have access to timely market information, can negotiate solely on your behalf, reduce your stress and save you money.

How REALTORS® can help:

Professional representation is your right under Virginia law. Talk with a Realtor to find out more about Buyer Brokerage services and real estate available in your area.

Why use a REALTOR®?:

- They Have Training & Experience
- Access to Timely Market Information
- Negotiation Assistance
- Reduced Stress on Buyer
- Helps Buyer Save Money

We
ARE
the R<sup>SM</sup>

Why it Matters:

Purchasing a home or investment property is a significant and complex financial transaction, especially in today's real estate market. So, choosing someone to guide you through this process is an important decision. Virginia Agency law requires that all real estate licensees enter into written brokerage relationship agreements with their clients. The intent of this requirement is to ensure that Buyer and Seller are aware of the types of representation available to them and the terms upon which the representation will be rendered.

Are all real estate licensees REALTORS®?

No, while Realtors are real estate licensees with similar education and licensing requirements, Realtors pledge to uphold a strict code of ethical conduct. These ethical duties exceed those established by Virginia law and provide buyer and seller clients with the highest level of integrity and service.

What is a Buyer Brokerage Agreement?

A buyer brokerage agreement is a contract that establishes a business relationship between you, the buyer, and your Realtor. The agreement must include the start and end date of the agreement, how your Realtor will be paid, and the duties and obligations of all parties.

When I sign a Buyer Brokerage Agreement how long am I obligated to that REALTOR®?

A buyer brokerage agreement must contain a specific start date and end date. The agreement can be for a period of several months, or you can engage a Realtor for a few days; or even to see just one particular property. You and your Realtor can discuss and agree upon the length of your agreement, when you review the other terms and conditions.

Types of Buyer Brokerage Service

Typically, buyers will engage a Realtor as an exclusive standard agent. A standard agent is required to perform specific duties for his or her buyer client. These duties include:

1. Negotiate terms and conditions of a real estate purchase contract
2. Prepare written offers and counteroffers
3. Promote your interests
4. Maintain the confidentiality of your personal and financial information
5. Account for any money received, in which you have an interest.

There are other types of buyer brokerage service. These include limited service and independent contractor. A limited service agent will perform some but not all of the duties of a standard agent. An independent contractor is a form of non-agency representation, whereby your Realtor would perform only the specific tasks stated in your brokerage agreement. Your Realtor can explain these to you, so you can choose the type of representation appropriate for you and your transaction